Confidence in the future

Deloitte offers its clients a wide range of professional services, including audit, risk management, consulting, financial advisory, tax and legal services

Our mission is to help our clients and our people excel.

Today, Deloitte is the fastest-growing Big Four firm in the CIS. Russian and foreign specialists provide the highest quality professional services, working in close cooperation as part of a team.

Our approach is based on clear insight into business challenges and innovative solutions, combined with an in-depth understanding of local environments and industry knowledge.

Deloitte has a number of cross-functional industry groups that render assistance to our clients in solving business challenges and meeting CIS market needs.

We carefully observe the latest changes in various industries and provide a professional view of their potential implications.

The high quality of our services and our unique corporate culture have brought international recognition and numerous awards to our firm. Deloitte offers its clients a wide range of professional services, including audit, risk management, consulting, financial advisory, tax and legal services.

Deloitte worldwide and in the CIS

Cooperation between our local and international resources enables us to consider the specifics of local environments while delivering the best international practice

Deloitte was one of the first international firms to provide professional services in the CIS market, operating through separate legal entities, which are member firms of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited network.

We have significant international resources and expertise that allow us to ensure that the highest quality of service is provided to international and local clients. Cooperation between our local and international resources enables us to consider the specifics of local environments while delivering the best international practice.

Nearly 2,500 employees focusing on various industries, including finance services, telecommunications, energy, resources and retail, work in our CIS practice. Deloitte's extensive experience and professionalism help its clients to gain significant benefits in various business aspects, from corporate strategy development to preparation for an initial public offering (IPO).

For the past 20 years, we have helped our clients excel. During this time, we have implemented a number of projects intended to optimize and tailor international methodologies to the Russian business environment and have gained significant experience with major Russian companies. Insight into the CIS market enables us to use our unique knowledge to meet our clients' needs.

Philosophy and corporate culture

Our approach is based on clear insight into business challenges and innovative solutions, together with in-depth local and industry-specific knowledge

We strive to make Deloitte the leading professional services firm in the CIS that provides a full range of services to our international clients while developing a dynamic practice serving local clients. Effective cooperation between Russian and foreign professionals gives us access to the knowledge and skills necessary to provide high quality services.

As the CIS is developing rapidly, we cannot be bound by traditional approaches to serving our clients. We are constantly developing our services to operate in this market and offer high quality services to our clients, including new business solutions. The success of this approach is shown by our current standing in the market.

We know that our clients face unique challenges, and we can offer them services that correspond to their needs. Our approach is based on clear insight into business challenges and innovative solutions, together with in-depth local and industry-specific knowledge. Our mission is to help our clients excel.

Member firms of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited network follow the highest standards in professional ethics, honesty and quality of services. This is clear in our approach to business, client service standards, the position of our management, our shared values and the ethical principles of our people. We strive to follow both the letter and spirit of professional standards and global market regulations, as well as ethical and moral principles.

Our current and future success depends on the professional skills of our people, their enthusiasm and commitment to the firm's mission and strategy. We strive to support the success and development of our people. We have implemented the Employer of Choice program, and Deloitte is the only professional services firm that has also been on Fortune magazine's 100 Employer of Choice list for six consecutive years.

Industries

One of the drivers of our firm's successful operation is its ability to foresee industry development trends. Deloitte has established cross-functional industry groups, which are intended to assist our clients in overcoming complex challenges in line with today's CIS market needs. Deloitte experts have extensive practical experience in various industries.

Energy & Resources

Transformation processes in the current political, economic and legislative environment, as well as growing competition and environmental questions, govern the future growth of energy and resources companies and also outline future challenges in the area of organizational performance. Considering this, the solutions offered by Deloitte in the oil and gas, mining, energy and metallurgical industries are becoming more and more important.

Telecommunications, Media and Technology

We provide professional expertise to more than 80% of the largest technology, media and telecommunications companies in Russia and the CIS. Serving our clients, we carefully analyze the drivers of competitive advantages in these industries, assess market structure and dynamics, and develop strategies to achieve sustainable competitive advantage and improved profitability. Deloitte provides international tax advice specially intended for rapidly changing industries.

Real Estate

The Deloitte real estate client service team is a joint group of professionals specializing in audit, taxation, corporate finance, valuation and consulting. Deloitte is uniquely able to promote efficient solutions in the real estate sector by realizing the benefits of independence and objectivity, expertise and previous achievements and the effective use of global resources.

Consumer Business and Transport

The CIS consumer sector is developing rapidly and companies are facing new challenges. We assist our clients with the development of appropriate strategies, the creation of innovative solutions and the increase of the quality of information used in their business. Deloitte CIS serves more than 500 consumer business companies in the CIS, including market leaders in food, beverage and other consumer product manufacturing, wholesale and distribution companies and retail chains.

Manufacturing

Irrespective of whether your company operates in the retail, service, FMCG, automotive, chemical, transport, agriculture or tourism sector, Deloitte will assist you in improving your client service level, increasing shareholder value, reducing costs and retaining the customer focus of your business.

Financial Services

Banks and other organizations operating on the financial market strive to continuously expand both geographically and in the scope of services they offer. Taking into account the ever growing needs of institutions in the financial sector, we have formed the Financial Services Industry group.

Government and Infrastructure

Development of transport, housing and social infrastructure requires cooperation between government and business. Public private partnerships are the most common form of infrastructure project implementation. We provide assistance in the fields of transport, housing and social infrastructure, as well as in energy and resources. The services we provide include assistance to public private partnerships, audit, risk management, consulting, corporate finance, and tax and legal advisory.
